

FIG. 2

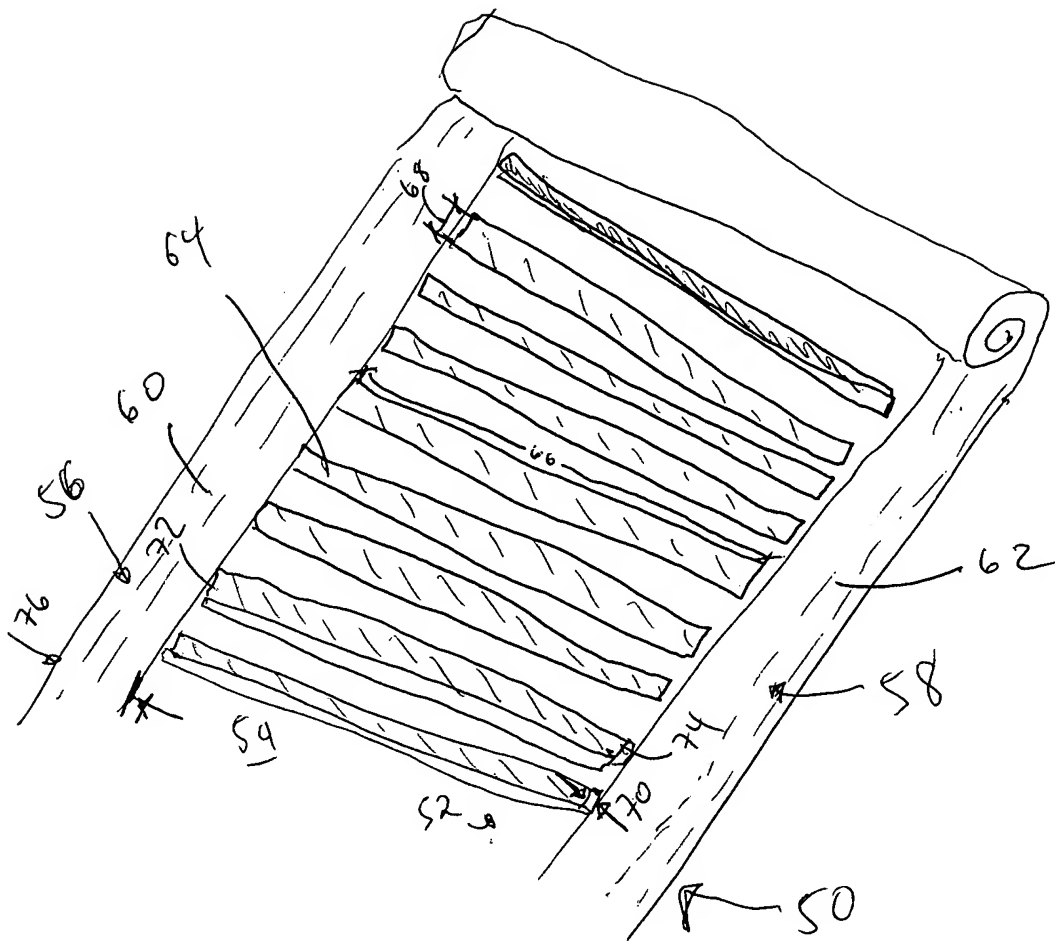

FIG. 3

step 100 providing a paper backing wherein said paper backing has a front side, back side, connecting end and finishing end;

step 102 affixing a plurality of strips to said paper backing, said plurality of strips being parallel to each other and perpendicular to said connecting end and said finishing end and at least one inch from said connecting end ; step 103 is optional and may be evenly spacing said strips at a distance between one and four inches from another; step 104 applying an adhesive material to said connecting end of said paper backing;

step 106 rolling said device so as to provide said plurality of strips upright with front side, said connecting end and said finishing end being visible; step 108 attaching adhesive strips to said back side of said paper backing.

FIG. 4